Training Description

EAL Academy's 1-day mindfulness training provides an experience to learn how to facilitate mindful meditations, mindful leadership, and other mindfulness activities with horses. Clients are seeking programs to help them find greater balance, better ways to manage stress, more self-care and heart-centered interactions based on compassion and empathy. Offering mindfulness programs with horses is an incredible way for your clients to experience coherence (a meditative state with many positive benefits).

Mindfulness involves simply maintaining focus in the present moment while being intensely aware of what you're sensing and feeling without judgment. Horses are the best mindfulness teachers because they live mindfully in the present moment, typically in a coherent state. They offer an active mindful experience that's very different than typical mindful meditation experiences that clients enjoy. Facilitating these heart-centered experiences is personally rewarding for all involved and a wonderful experience to offer clients on a regular basis.

During this training, you will:

- Learn mindfulness techniques and become proficient at designing and facilitating these types of programs, especially for personal well-being, leaders, teams, and equestrian clients.
- Understand why people shift into positive emotions and experience physical benefits when they reach a state of coherence, which is a state of resilience and an outcome of heart-centered meditation techniques.
- Learn about meaningful research that shows horses elevate positive emotions in people, along with other cognitive and physical benefits, by simply being in their presence. You'll learn how to engage this heart-based coherent state through mindful activities.
- Be guided step-by-step with processes and we provide meditation scripts, forms, tools, templates, and samples to facilitate your own mindfulness programs with horses right after the training.
- Explore mindful leadership concepts and how to apply them with teams that are looking to support employees with improving well-being, balance, and culture.
- Understand how to offer highly sought-after mindfulness programs. You'll be prepared to grow your equine business by offering EAL mindfulness programs. We've found EAL mindfulness programs to be a great way to grow revenue with a program that clients often want to attend multiple times. This type of program is also a great addition to horseback riding and for equestrian clients.

Prerequisites:

- Experience with safely handling horses on the ground, no riding or driving experience is needed.
- Prior certification is not required, although EAL Academy's 4-day Certification training supports facilitating all types of EAL programs and includes additional activities to use during mindfulness EAL programs along with tools and templates for leading your EAL programs – marketing, pricing, liability, program planning, etc. These topics are not covered in this training.
- No experience with mindfulness or meditation is needed.
